COVID-19 information: Children’s campus open. Call for more information. Neighborhood House’s priority right now is the safety and well-being of our clients and staff. We are doing our part to prevent the spread of COVID-19 by, for the first time in recent history, temporarily closing. This was an extremely difficult decision to make, as this pandemic is unprecedented and thus, requires unprecedented cautionary measures. Please reach out to Gina Toledo, our Family Support Director, if you have any questions and we'd be happy to support you and your family with anything you need. We are compiling and providing all the resources we know of to help your family through this difficult time. We’ll be updating this page as we learn more information, so continually check for more info!

Rite Care Learning Centers: A therapist is paired with the child and parent for weekly sessions. The participation of the parent or other attending adult is essential. When the adult learns along with the child, the concepts taught can be reinforced at home.

Covid-19 Response
Because of the current situation we have been unable to have our State Basketball Games and unfortunately needed to cancel our Summer Games as well. It is necessary to cancel all practices and events through May and we will review at that time whether we can begin practices and events. We are working to bring Bowling back as a registered sport and not as an exhibition. We are trying to set up regional teams and tournaments to engage as many athletes as possible. While this cannot replace the Summer Games, we are going to do our best to have events throughout the remainder of the year to bring our athletes and their... families together. We will be posting some ideas for our athletes and families that anyone can use to stay active and involved. We will also be putting together a few contests to get the public and our athletes engaged with each other even though we will not physically be together. Look for those on our website.

Utah Mountain Bike Elevate Program: In partnership with the NAC and the Utah High School Cycling League, a unique opportunity to any high school student with a disability to learn how to mountain bike with the goal of competing as a member of their school’s mountain bike team. Covid-19 Information:
Covid-19 Response: There's nothing we love more than seeing the flood of SummerWorks campers and staff join us on the front field every week to raise the SummerWorks flag. After numerous discussions with the Rowland Hall Administration, the American Camp Association, and following the CDC and Salt Lake County health guidelines, we have decided as a team that we will not offer any camp in June, and will be delaying our start date until at least July 6th. Camp will only be available to those going into 1st-5th grade. Registration is currently closed, please see our COVID-19 FAQ for more information.

Thanksgiving Point: Summer at Thanksgiving Point means there is no chance for the summertime blues! This year we have more summer camp classes and variety than ever before. Let your child explore space, try their hand at paleontology, program a Lego robot, explore insects, learn the science behind the food we eat, go on a dinosaur discovery, and so much more! Camps are open for summer 2020.

NEW THIS YEAR - For youth with autism, ages 13 to 18. Camps are offered week-long, half day (Monday through Friday, 9am - 12 noon).

Autism Adventure - The adventure education process has a unique ability to develop increased social awareness and connection in children with Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD). The seven stages of adventure are name games, deinhibitizers, communication, problem solving, trust, low ropes, and high ropes elements. Children with ASD along with their peers will be taken through these seven stages and be guided to expand their current social understanding and aptitude. Participants must be verbal, and must be able to use the restroom independently.

Gilgal Sculpture Gardens: Located at 749 East 500 South in Salt Lake City, Gilgal Sculpture Garden was envisioned, designed and created by Thomas Battersby Child, Jr. in the mid-twentieth century. Tucked in the middle of the block behind houses and businesses, many are still unaware of its existence and enjoy a true sense of discovery when they visit the garden for the first time. Gilgal Sculpture Garden contains 12 original sculptures and over 70 stones engraved with scriptures, poems, and literary texts. As a whole, Gilgal Sculpture Garden is significant as the only identified “visionary art environment” in Utah.

Covid-19 information: 5/22/20 – Wheeler Farm is back open and Sunday Market will return June 7 with modified operations.

Gale Center Museum: Offers a unique look at the history of South Jordan and Americana. With its interactive displays and hands on approach to learning, it is a great place to visit with young children.

Website: http://www.sjc.utah.gov/gale-center-museum/

Covid-19 information: Gale center has re-opened (5/26/20) with temporary hours of Tuesday-Thursday 10:00 am – 1:00 pm. We encourage visitors to wear masks, and discourage multi-family play groups. Hands on exhibits are closed at this time.

Granite Unplugged: Play Unplugged is all about encouraging kids to put down their electronics and get out and play. This is done by creating a symbiotic relationship between kids, parents, and local businesses. This relationship creates an incentive for all to participate as one motivates the other. Kids earn a Brag Badge for every activity they complete. The badges are specifically designed to be fun, colorful, and highly collectable. Some examples of Brag Badge activities include: fishing, hunting for bugs, hiking, and more!
