

HCBS WAIVER & GUARDIANSHIP CONFERENCE

Keeping the Promise of Community Living: Supporting Safety, Choice, and Self-Determination Across a Range of Support Needs

Wednesday, November 18
8:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

UDAN
Utah Disability Advocacy Network

Utah State University
Salt Lake Center
920 W. Levoy Drive
Taylorsville, UT 84123.

A collaborative conference focused on practical strategies for protecting Medicaid Home and Community-Based Services (HCBS, including "DSPD" services), advancing self-determination, and ensuring that people with disabilities across a range of support needs are safe and have meaningful opportunities to live, work, and thrive in their communities.

Panel Discussion

- Explore practical ways to promote community integration
- Self-determination, and meaningful choice for people with different support needs
- Guardianship arrangements.

Panelist Includes

- DSPD/ HCBS Provider
- Support Coordinator/ Case Manager
- Self-Advocates & Guardians/ Parents Respresenting a range of support needs and guardianship arragements

Event Schedule

- 8am-9am: Registration & contenental breakfast
- 9-9:45: Welcome & Keynote
- 10am-12:15pm: Breakout sessions
- 12:15pm-1:15pm: Lunch & panel discussion
- 1:30pm-2:30pm- Breakout sessions
- 2:30-3: Closing Remarks

Submit Questions:
bit.ly/UDANaskthepanel

Register:
bit.ly/UDANCon2026